Women's Retreat

"O COME LET US ADORE HIM"

Throughout scripture and tradition it is revealed to us how angels are employed to guide and protect us, lead us to adore God, and rule us in our daily lives. Because God gave us all a guardian angel from our conception, we know that we are valued, planned and protected by God's glorious love for us. As we near Advent and the Christmas season: we will consider how angels facilitate the adoration of God, this knowledge can help us rediscover peace in the midst of a season that can be stressful and busy.
